SESSION 1

DOES MARRIAGE MATTER?

INTRODUCTION

Long before governments and societies ever discussed marriage, God put on the human heart a longing for the unique lifelong commitment and total self-giving love found in the Sacrament of Matrimony. We're going to see how marriage corresponds to this human desire for a lasting love, and how it's also good for our happiness and good for a flourishing society.

But even more than that, we're going to see that underneath this ancient institution known as marriage, there's something much deeper at work. Marriage is bound up with God's plan for the entire world. In our marriages we participate in something much greater than our human affection for each other or the wonderful desire to be with the one we love. We are caught up into something so much bigger than our own human love. We are caught up into God's love.

OPENING PRAYER

Pray together the following prayer:

Heavenly Father,

Through the intercession of the Holy Family, help us treasure the gift of marriage that reflects the love of Christ for the Church, where the self-giving love of husband and wife unites them more perfectly and cooperates in your plan for new life created in your image.

Help us support men and women in their vocation of marriage, especially in difficult times when they join their sufferings to the Cross. Help us uphold the institution of marriage in our society as the place where love is nurtured and family life begins. Help us acknowledge that our future depends on this love and your providential care for us.

Amen.

"Marriage based on exclusive and definitive love becomes the icon of the relationship between God and his people and vice versa."

—Pope Benedict XVI, Encyclical Deus Caritas Est, n. 11, 2005

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION

1. If we are hardwired to desire the faithful, permanent, and exclusive love of marriage, why do you think marriage can so difficult sometimes? How do you think our culture affects the way we view marriage?

2. Imagine that you're having lunch with a single friend who claims that marriage is overrated and then asks why you are bothering even getting married. What would you say in response?

"Today, there are those who say that marriage is out of fashion... They say that it is not worth making a lifelong commitment, making a definitive decision, 'forever,' because we do not know what tomorrow will bring. I ask you, instead, to be revolutionaries, I ask you to swim against the tide; yes, I am asking you to rebel against this culture that sees everything as temporary and that ultimately believes you are incapable of responsibility, that believes you are incapable of true love."

—Pope Francis, World Youth Day on July 28, 2013

COUPLE'S DISCUSSION

1. What are some of the hopes and expectations that each of you is bringing into your marriage?

2. What are some of the challenges and difficulties that you foresee in marriage?

"Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and cleaves to his wife, and they become one flesh."

—Genesis 2:24

CLOSING PRAYER

Pray together the following prayer:

Almighty God,

We aspire to the ideal of marriage that you established long before any other cultural or governmental statutes existed. Your Holy Scriptures say, “From the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female’; ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one’; So they are no longer two but one. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder.”

Amen.

COUPLE'S ACTIVITY

You saw in the video how marriages are caught up into God's plan for the entire world and how in the Sacrament of Matrimony our human love participates in God's very love for us. This will be explored more in the next several sessions. But for now, take some time to step back and ponder, “What is God's plan for marriage?” Some key aspects of this plan can be found in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1601–1605.

(If you do not have a Catechism, there is an online version that you can find at: www.usccb.org/beliefs-and-teachings/what-we-believe/catechism/.)

Take some time this week to read these paragraphs in the Catechism and really ponder the truths about marriage that God's plan reveals.

Then discuss with each other how this understanding of God's plan for marriage might change the way you have envisioned your future marriage. Do you find these truths challenging, or comforting, or both as you prepare for marriage? Share your thoughts openly and honestly with each other because this is the time in which you really start building your marriage together for the rest of your lives.

Consider starting a journal to record passages that have special meaning to you and your beloved.
