Gertrud von le Fort

Europe was a battlefield of ideologies. Nazism and Communism reduced woman to a mere instrument of the state. In the name of liberating her from the "tyranny" of Christianity, atheism led to woman's enslavement. Von le Fort countered the modern assault on the feminine not with polemics but with perhaps this most beautiful meditation on womanhood ever written.

INSPIRING Books FOR ADULTS

◆ CHOSEN - Donna Steichen
How Christ Sent Twenty-three Surprised Converts to Replant His Vineyard
The twenty-three who tell their conversion stories in these pages were not drawn to the Church by sound evangelization programs, beautiful liturgies, or saintly witnesses among the clergy. On the contrary, many of them were attracted to Catholicism in spite of deficient catechesis. Christ himself led these souls to his Church. CHOS-P . . . 495 pp, Sewn Softcover, $16.95

By letting boys be boys. Meeker shows parents how they can make a difference between the boy their son is and the man he will become. BSBB-P . . . 287 pp, Sewn Softcover, $14.95
